As a valued Ocean World Travel customer we are pleased to provide you with the full details of Fred Olsen's 2014 program. This impressive program gives you a wonderful blend of the original and the new. Fred Olsen keeps her traditional cruises for which she is renowned for, providing you with a British style of cruising along with comfortable accommodation and excellent cuisine.

cruise include St Lucia and Antigua, both classic Caribbean Islands which boast a relaxing ambience, heaps of culture and warm sunshine.

For those who prefer a slice of history, we recommend the D-Day 70th Anniversary cruise on 1st June 2014 for 7 nights on-board Braemar departing from Harwich. We believe demand will be very strong for this cruise and it would be worth booking this cruise early to avoid disappointment.

If you fancy trying something different in 2014, then why not try Fred. Olsen's mystery cruise? Departing Tilbury on 15th November 2014 for 14 nights on-board Black Watch, this is certainly a cruise with a difference and a first for Fred. Olsen, with the itinerary to be revealed as the cruise progresses!

Fred. Olsen has also added new departure ports to their 2014 program which allows you to avoid all the hassle that unnecessary travel can bring to the start of your cruise holiday. Departing from a local point near you, Fred Olsen Cruise lines have introduced London Tilbury and Bristol Avonmouth to their departure ports. Other ports of call include Southampton, Dover, Harwich, Greenock, Belfast, Liverpool and Newcastle. The choice is endless.

We hope you agree that there is a fabulous array of cruises on offer to take you to some of the most exciting and exhilarating places on the planet. The popular ports of call which Fred Olsen has previously visited are still available on the program. The classic cruises which are featured include the beautiful Norwegian Fjords, the highlights of the Baltics and the sunny Canary Islands. These cruises range from 7 – 14 nights which gives you the opportunity to take a short break or a well-deserved relaxing fortnight.

For something a little longer, why not experience the Caribbean and Cuba which Balmoral embarks on a 34 night cruise. Departing on 3rd November 2014, which is the perfect season to visit; Balmoral sails from Southampton towards the sun and cruises to the most beautiful islands of the Caribbean. Highlights of this
